

on the securities bill at an early hour on Tuesday. The majority leader has also announced that following the securities litigation bill, it will be his intention to begin consideration of the regulatory reform bill.

Mr. President, there would be the usual time reserved in between those two votes to explain for 2 minutes, 1 minute on each side, the contents of the amendments.

Mr. SARBANES. Mr. President, will the Senator yield? I understand that following the second of those votes, the Senator from Maryland would then be recognized to offer an amendment relating to the so-called safe harbor, which is one of two amendments I have on that aspect of the bill?

Mr. D'AMATO. That is correct. That has been included in the earlier unanimous-consent request.

Mr. SARBANES. I thank the Senator.

RECESS UNTIL 9:15 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. D'AMATO. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in recess under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 9:08 p.m., recessed until Tuesday, June 27, 1995, at 9:15 a.m.
